18 waits

Morgan Reynolds is wearing three hand-made necklaces by 18 Waits. Photographed by Jeff Petry.

18 Waits is a common ground for like-minded individuals. It is a lifestyle as opposed to simply a brand or fashion label. It's a way of life inspired by a joie de vivre and an appreciation of the finer things in life like an old pair of leather boots or a child's painting. 18 Waits has an old European mentality which, at the same time, takes inspiration in nature and the natural flow of the earth. It is a lifestyle which adheres just as much to Parisian cafés as it does to old English pubs, 1920s New York speakeasies, wood cabins by the lake, old upright pianos, poetry, literature, and 1970s rock and roll music.
